James P. "Jim" Christiansen & Rasmine "Minnie" Rasmussen Family

The story of Jim and Minnie Christiansen and their two children is in the Christiansen volume of Robert Christiansen's Family History. For convenience, I include here a chart and a brief synopsis of their children.

■ Rasmine "Minnie" Rasmussen, my paternal grandmother.

Rasmine Rasmussen, the second child of Lars Christian Rasmussen and Karen Marie Andersen, was born in 1873 in Voer parish in northern Jutland and emigrated in 1882 at the age of nine with her parents and four sisters on the S.S. Furnessia.

Minnie married my paternal grandfather, James P. "Jim" Christiansen, a Boomer Township farmer, in 1893. Minnie's younger sister, Mette Marie "Mary" Rasmussen, married Jim's younger brother, Nels Christiansen.

For all of their married life, Jim and Minnie Christiansen lived on the same Boomer Township farm in Section 21 about a mile west of the Christian Christiansen home place. After Jim died in 1941, Minnie remained on the farm until 1947 when she moved to Eagle Grove, Iowa, to be near her daughter.

Jim and Minnie Christiansen had six grandchildren. As of 2016 five of the grandchildren are living.

The story of Nels and Mary Christiansen and their four children is in the Christiansen volume of Robert Christiansen's Family History. For convenience, I include here a chart and a brief synopsis of their children.

■ Mette Marie "Mary" Rasmussen, my great-aunt.

Mette Marie Rasmussen, the third child of Lars Christian Rasmussen and Karen Marie Andersen, married Nels Christiansen in 1898. Mary's older sister, Rasmine "Minnie" Rasmussen, married Nels' older brother, James P. "Jim" Christiansen.

Nels remained at home and farmed the Christian Christiansen home place in Boomer Township. Mary died in 1917 leaving four young children. Nels never remarried. He and his daughters raised Raymond and Clarence. Neither of the daughters married.

Nels and Mary had six grandchildren, all of whom are living as of 2016.
