My great-grandmother, Dorthen Hansen, the third of eleven known children of Hans Jacobsen and Karen Margrethe Hansdatter, was born in 1850 in Langet in the northern part of Radsted Sogn, Maribo Amt on the island of Lolland. I believe that all of Dorthen's siblings remained in Denmark.

Dorthe Hansen's Other Relatives - Overview

© 2016 by Robert A. Christiansen, updated by RAC 2 Mar '16.

As shown on the following chart, my great-grandmother, Dorthe Hansen, was the third of eleven known children of Hans Jacobsen and Karen Margrethe Hansdatter, of whom eight are thought to have reached adulthood. All eleven children were born in Langet in the northern part of Radsted Sogn, Maribo Amt on the island of Lolland.

I don't believe any of Dorthe's siblings emigrated.

The following section contains some cursory information on six of the eight children who reached adulthood, followed by a section on Maren Hansen and Peter Munk. I omit Dorthe since she is covered earlier in the Hansen volume.

- Jacob Hansen was last found as a fifteen-year-old living in his parent's household in the 1860 Radsted Sogn census.

- Kirstine "Stine" Hansen married Anders Hansen. I found Anders and Kirstine living on a farm in Radsted Sogn in the 1880, 1890 and 1901 censuses.
My little great-uncle, Mads Adolf Hansen, stayed with Anders and Stine Hansen from the time his parents and siblings emigrated in 1886 until his death in 1893.

- Peter Hansen perhaps never married. In 1880 he was living in his widowed mother's household in Radsted Langet and in 1890 was a laborer living in the household of his brother, Lars.
- Karen Hansen is thought to have married Rasmus Rasmussen and to have died of pneumonia in the spring of 1887.

Peter Henrik Munk and Maren Hansen

■ Maren Hansen, Dorth's youngest sibling, married Peter Munk, a farmer.

In the 1921 and 1930 censuses, Peter and Maren were living in Stokkemarke Sogn about eight miles northwest of Maribo By in central Lolland.

Peter and Maren Munk's son, Axel, also farmed in Lolland, and was visited by members of his cousin Laurits Christian Hansen's family in the 1960s. The Axel Munk farm was thought to have been named Blaksminde, and to be located in western Lolland near Tjørneby, which is northwest of Utterslev.

Of interest: Another Peter Munk lived in Lolland in the early 20th century, and was the adoptive father of Kai Munk, a Danish priest and playwright who the Germans martyred during World War II. So far I have been unable to find a connection between the two Peter Munks, but Munk is an unusual surname and I'm still trying.
